Hello Marriage Ministry Team,

First off, I want to thank you again for allocating a portion of your Saturday morning two weeks back to attend the Prepare - Enrich Relationship Inventory training course. Using this inventory will be the foundational tool when we work with and mentor, premarital couples.

Before that Saturday, you and your spouse completed the Prepare - Enrich inventory yourselves, as a way for you to see what the mentee couples would have completed before they come to visit with you. The results of their survey make up two reports; a Couples Report for them and the Facilitator's Report which is for your eyes only.

The results from YOUR survey are available. I will place a copy of your "Couples Report" and a copy of a workbook in a sealed envelope in my personal mail slot at church under "Buschman" - the mail slots are located North of the Bookstore. They will be in our slot after the Saturday 4:30 pm service onwards.

The "Facilitator's Report" from YOUR survey will not be distributed at this time. This report includes how each spouse answered their questions. From personal experience that does not always work out well for couples. I am working with the Prepare-Enrich people on how to best move forward on this. In the interim, I will retain a copy under lock and key of your "Facilitator's Report".

In the next few days I will be in touch with each of you via email to develop next steps that will allow us to roll out your respective ministry to the congregation.

Blessings to you,
